SPIRITUALIST SOCIETY

To Rededicate Church Building on Bank Street Sunday.

The First Spiritualist society will rededicate their church building on Bank Street tomorrow (Sunday). The auditorium has been thoroughly renovated, painted and decorated and supplied with new opera chairs, making it the coolest and most comfortable hall in the city. A new shaded electric lighting system has been installed and a carpet has been laid in the aisles.

Sunday will be the first time that the society has occupied it for public services in about ten years, and the services will take the form of a rededication.

The speaker for both services will be Mrs. Mary S. Vanderbilt of Brooklyn, N. Y., who needs no introduction to Willimantic audiences. Mrs. Vanderbilt will deliver a short sermon at each service and will follow with a message of peace.

At the morning service Miss Annie H. Tingley will give a short historical sketch of the organization of the society and the action of the church building, and in the evening D. A. Lyman will briefly review the conditions which have made it possible for the society to have the church for use again.

At each service there will be solo singing by C. Howard Miller, who will be accompanied on the piano by Miss Mabelle Taft.

AUTO STRIKES WHEEL

Winfield Lyon, 14 Year Old Chaplin Student, Injured.

On Main street, in front of Whitmore's store, shortly after 3 o'clock Friday evening, a student of the Windham High school, whose home is in North Windham, was riding down North street on his bicycle, and turned into Main street. The intention of going to Sweeney's store. He rode directly in front of an automobile while was coming each down the slight grade at that point. Before the machine, which, according to the statements of those who saw the accident, was proceeding at a slow and reasonable rate, could be stopped, the car and wheel collided, and young Lyon was thrown heavily to the ground and severely bruised.

The car bore a New Jersey number, 25582, and was driven by its owner, William N. Smith, of Bogota, N. J., a paper manufacturer, who is visiting his wife's relatives in Chaplin. The car was brought to a full stop within 25 feet, and the owner, with the assistance of Dr. R. C. White and Chief E. H. Richmond of the police force, both of whom happened to be in close proximity at the time of the accident, hurried Lyon to St. Joseph's hospital. Here it was found that he had a bruised eye and nose, and was injured on one shoulder, an arm and elbow. So far as the examination revealed, no serious injuries resulted. The peculiar fact about the collision was that the automobile, a six cylinder touring car, had bent fenders, a dent in the frame and a leak in the radiator as a result of the mixture of this despite the slow rate at which it was going. No one could be found who laid the blame for the collision on the driver of the machine, while all said the boy was on the wrong side of the road. With many machines passing along Main street, and so many pedestrians, auto drivers and others who do not pay strict attention to the rules of the road, it is surprising that more accidents do not occur in that neighborhood.

Fans Enthusiastic.
The world's series was the main topic on the streets Friday, and the failure of Chief Bender to hold down the Braves was the cause of considerable jubilation among some of the National league rosters who have not had an opportunity to see their favorites in the lead for several years. One of the local firms had occasion to call the Boston chamber of commerce during the afternoon to ask for prices on flour, but all that could be obtained over the phone was "The Braves are leading in the sixth, 6 to 11." Everything else was immaterial.

REPUBLICANS HARMONIOUS.

E. P. Chesbro and S. Arnold Peckham Nominated for Representatives.

The republican caucus to nominate candidates for representatives to the general assembly met in the town hall Friday night at 8.15 and was called to order by William S. Congdon, chairman of the republican committee. George E. Hinman was selected as chairman on motion of Charles A. Gates, and Louis B. Lincoln, nominated by F. W. Gates, acted as clerk. Only two names were presented to the caucus, E. P. Chesbro, nominated by Nelson A. Daniels, and S. Arnold Peckham, nominated by George M. Graves. Both were the unanimous choice of the caucus and nothing was heard of the candidacy of Albert E. Peckham, though Chairman Hinman stated before putting the names to a vote that he had no objection to either of them being placed in nomination. On motion of C. A. Gates the chair appointed E. R. Jackson, William A. George and George S. Elliott a committee to retire and bring in ten names for justices of the peace.

While they were deliberating both Mr. Peckham and Mr. Chesbro thanked

If your stomach is out of order, feels badly after meals, you must put it right. It not only quickly ends the misery but helps to unclot the liver, cleanse and strengthen the stomach so it can digest your food in the natural way, then you are well, hale and hearty.

Mi-o-na is not only one of the most effective remedies, but inexpensive. The Lee & Osgood Co. sells it with agreement to refund the money if it does not give satisfaction.

MYSTIC

Death of Mrs. George W. Noyes—Conrad Kretzer Democratic Nominee for Representative.

Mrs. Elizabeth Howe Noyes, widow of George W. Noyes, died at her home on Lincoln avenue Thursday evening after several months of severe suffering. She had resided in Mystic for a long time and had a host of friends. She was a daughter of Louis and Mary Howe and has only one near relative, Miss Elizabeth Noyes, who was a daughter of her only son, Standish Noyes, who died some ten years ago. Bereft of all that was near and dear to her, she was made comfortable in her last illness by loving friends and neighbors. She was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and Fanny Leary chapter, D. A. R.

Frank W. Griffith of New Britain is the guest of his family in town. Mrs. Dan E. Gray and son, Hadley Gray, of North Stonington were guests Friday of their aunt, Mrs. Charles Stoddard.

Danger in Hasty Reforms.
Society wrongs are deeply embedded in law and tradition, and therefore they are not easily righted. So it is wisdom to go slowly, even when going in the right direction, lest stumbling, progress be retarded. Reformers should try to avoid the waste of haste.

But there are a few tiny springs in the town that are worth more than gold mines in these dry times. One is at the Canterbury crossing, near the cemetery: one not far from Earl Davis, at Flat Rock; one on the west side of the Moosup road, near the Frank Beebe farm; and another on the Lawton mill property. Others are in different parts of the town and should be taken care of.
